For Groton's Future

As a steward of the land, Ed Neuhauser works with Cornell MFO program to develop low-impact logging tools.

With a extensive career in the areas of natural resources and renewable energy, Ed has an understanding of what is needed to protect and preserve Groton's natural beauty.

Ed works well with the Town Clerk, Deputy Town Clerk, and Code Enforcement Officer to carefully prepare for and efficiently run the Planning Board Meetings.

He works with Town, County and State officials to explore alternative solutions to difficult problems.

Being retired, Ed has the time, knowledge, and skills to devote to the people of the Town.
