

"We're all in this together! I care about our community."

—Loueen Rosenbush

LOUEEN has owned a home in Groton for over 20 years. She moved back from Denver to take care of her ailing mother and now cares for her young grandson.

Loueen is a former real estate broker and REO Asset Manager who has experience working with buyers, investors, sellers, and banks. In addition, she has 13 years' experience working directly with high net-worth donors and their professional advisors for customized charitable giving plans to Cornell, the Denver Zoo, and New York Medical College.

WORKING FOR GROTON'S FUTURE LOUEEN ROSENBUSH for Town Board

Loueen offers Groton a caring, common-sense approach to the problems we face. She loves the peaceful, rural character of the Groton we all remember and wants to retain that quality while ensuring that every citizen of the town feels respected and safe.

LOUEEN'S PRIORITIES

- QUALITY OF LIFE: Let's make our neighborhoods walkable and safe again and protect our land and water.
- INTERMUNICIPAL COOPERATION: Only by working together with the Village and County can we develop better housing and reduce crime in Groton.
